THE AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION AND CATTLE SHOW, CONJEEVERAM.

30th May 1906 to 5th June 1906.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF EXHIBITORS AND OTHERS.

1. The Exhibition will be opened on Thursday 30th May 1906 and it will continue open every day from 7 A.M. to 6 P.M. till the 5th June 1906.

2. The Exhibition Authorities reserve to themselves the right of allotting or refusing space for and admitting or rejecting any particular exhibit and of revoking any pass given hereunder.

3. Each intending exhibitor is requested to apply to the Secretary of the Exhibition Committee not later than the 5th May 1906 for the allotment of the space required.

4. Each exhibitor will be given a pass by the Secretary showing the registration of his application and the amount of space allotted to him.

5. The space allotted but not occupied by the exhibitors before the 30th May 1906 will be otherwise used by the Committee.

6. The reception of exhibits will commence on the 10th May 1906 and will continue every day till the 25th May 1906 and even later at the discretion of the Secretary. But perishable articles such as fruits, vegetables, greens and dairy produce will be received up to 6 A. M. on the 30th May 1906.

7. Exhibits should be sent well packed and addressed to the Secretary of the Exhibition Committee. Each package should be accompanied by a list of the exhibits inside and should show the name and residence of the sender.

8. Exhibitors if they so wish it, may bring their exhibits personally or send them through authorized agents.

9. All exhibits when sent should have attached to them labels bearing the name of the exhibit, the name and address of the exhibitor or manufacturer, the locality of production and the group and class, and stating whether the exhibit is for sale or not, and if for sale the price and whether it is for competition or not. Labels will be supplied on application to the Secretary.

10. The Exhibition Authorities will provide necessary housing accommodation and take precautions to preserve exhibits from injury and guard the premises of the Exhibition and generally afford every facility to exhibitors or their agents in connection with the transport, display, sale and care of their exhibits. But they do not hold themselves responsible for any damage or loss arising from any cause whatsoever.

11. Exhibitors must ordinarily bear all expenses for conveying to and removing from the stalls in the exhibition grounds their exhibits. But in special cases the Exhibition Authorities will pay such expenses on proper application being made in advance for it.

12. The Exhibition Authorities will provide ordinary stalls for the display of exhibits but any arrangement requiring special construction, stands, cases, stalls, shelves, etc., and the mounting of machinery and apparatus and any special decoration of stalls should be carried out by the exhibitors at their own cost but in accordance with plans approved of by the Exhibition Authorities. The Exhibition Authorities may make arrangements for the above provided that application for it is made in time and estimated costs are paid in advance.

13. If any exhibitor requires steam or other motive powers or any other special accommodation for the display of his exhibits special mention should be made of the same in his first application for allotment of space.

14. The Secretary of the Exhibition Committee may, on application, give passes to any assistants, servants or other attendants who, he thinks, are necessary for attendance at the stalls of any exhibitor, permitting them to enter the Exhibition grounds during the course of the Exhibition. Such attendants shall obey the orders of the Exhibition staff.

15. The Exhibition Authorities will award gold or silver medals, money prizes and Certificates of Merit for deserving exhibits in the different classes. Judges will be chosen to make the awards. Competing exhibitors shall submit their exhibits to the said Judges and shall furnish samples, if required, at least three clear days before the Exhibition is opened.

16. Exhibits are not to be removed by the exhibitors from the Exhibition grounds during the Exhibition, but must be removed within seven days after the close of the Exhibition after which period they will be removed and stored at the risk and expense of the exhibitor. Any exhibit not claimed and removed by the exhibitor before the 15th June 1906, will be sold and the proceeds disposed of by the Exhibition Committee as they think fit.

17. Exhibits may be sold during the Exhibition subject to the rules that may be framed in that behalf, but they shall not be removed till after the close of the Exhibition.

18. Exhibitors who are unable to attend in person or send their agents may arrange with the Secretary for the Exhibition for the return of their goods subject to these rules and on payment in advance of the estimated costs and charges which may be ascertained from him.

19. The Secretary of the Exhibition Committee shall have the right to cause the removal of the exhibits of any exhibitor who does not conform to these rules.

20. The Exhibition Committee shall reserve to themselves the power to alter or revoke any of the above rules or frame any rules they think fit, due notice of which will be given in the newspapers.

21. All who become exhibitors shall be held by so doing to signify their compliance with the whole of these rules and any other rules the Exhibition Committee may issue from time to time.

22. All articles of indigenous growth or manufacture and natural or agricultural products from all parts of India, Burma and Ceylon will ordinarily be admitted, to the Exhibition. Foreign articles will not, ordinarily, be admitted, but tools, implements and machinery of foreign manufacture, used or likely to be used for starting or developing indigenous industries, will be accepted as also foreign products that may, in the opinion of the Committee, serve as useful models for imitation. Processes of manufactures that are now or may hereafter be carried on in India, may also be exhibited. No awards will, however, be made or prizes given for foreign manufactures or processes.

23. The Committee will not undertake to feed any live-stock exhibited but will make arrangements for the supply of all materials necessary for feeding purposes.

24. The Committee will exact a fee of five per cent upon all sales for the benefit of the Exhibition Fund.

25. Admission into the Exhibition ground shall be only by tickets which will be sold at rates to be fixed later on.

26. The classes of articles noted in the sheet annexed to this shall be exhibited but the Committee may, in their discretion, admit other exhibits under special circumstances.

27. The above rules do not apply to exhibits sent by the Madras Government or any other Government in India, or by Government Institutions or by Government of Native States and Local Bodies.

CONJEEVERAM,
2nd December 1905.

V. VENKATACHARI,
